

Assistant Professor, Counseling

The Psychology Department of La Salle University invites applicants for a full-time tenure track position starting January, 2011. Primary responsibilities will be in the master's program which prepares students for licensure as professional counselors and marriage and family therapists, but courses may also be taught in the doctoral or undergraduate programs.

Responsibilities include teaching courses in mental health counseling, participating in program development and providing student advisement. Scholarly research and university service are also expected. Candidates shall have obtained a doctorate in Counseling or Counseling Education or a closely related field from a CACREP accredited program or equivalent.

Candidates with expertise in counseling with underserved minority populations are encouraged to apply. Please send a letter of application describing your counseling, teaching and research interests, curriculum vita, three letters of recommendation, copies of transcripts and evaluations of teaching, if available to:

John J. Rooney, Ph.D., Chair
Psychology Search Committee
La Salle University, Box 828
1900 W. Olney Ave., Philadelphia, PA 19141

Review of applications will commence immediately and will continue until the position is filled.
