Brothers of the Christian Schools
Baltimore Province

Dear Friends,

In the spring of last year Christian Brothers from around the world gathered in a spirit of prayer and discernment for our 44th General Chapter in Rome to chart the course for the mission of the Christian Brothers for the next seven years. Representing more than 5,000 Brothers from 81 countries were men of many races, cultures and languages, who came together in a great spirit of faith, fraternity and hope to consider the needs of the world, the Church and of young people today, especially the poor, and to ask the question: What is God asking of us today?

Faithful sons of St. John Baptist de La Salle, it should come as no surprise that the delegates to that Chapter firmly recommended the Brothers to renew our existing educational works and to found new works to better serve the poor and to announce the Gospel to young people. Ironically, at a moment when the number of Brothers is growing smaller in First World countries, our ministries are flourishing. Together with 80,000 educators worldwide, with whom we share this educational and evangelizing mission, we touch the minds and hearts of more than one million young people around the globe.

In service to this mission the Brothers of the three East Coast Districts of Baltimore, New York and Long Island-New England, came together in retreat this summer at La Salle University to further lay the foundation for the creation of a new District, De La Salle East, in 2009. There is a great spirit of solidarity, confidence and hope among us as this process moves forward, as well as a conviction that this union will ensure not only the future vitality of the Lasallian mission but also holds the promise of increased vocations to the Brothers life.

In celebration of faithful service to this mission we will be honoring eleven Brother Jubilarians at an October dinner in Philadelphia benefiting West Catholic High School, Brothers Albert Schmidt, 70 years; James Kirkpatrick and John Lawless, 60 years; Patrick Carney, Lawrence Dempsey and Joseph Mahon, 50 years; Richard Breese, Joseph Grabenstein and Robert Schieler, 40 years; and Patrick Cassidy and Kevin Dalmasse, 25 years. We are also blessed to celebrate in September the First Profession of Vows of Brothers John Luczkowski and Peter Nguyen, and the entrance into the Postulancy of Anthony Elfering and Brendan Kelly.

With the publishing of this Annual Report, we acknowledge your generous support in helping to further our educational and evangelizing mission to young people in challenging circumstances, the formation and education of our young Brothers, and the care of our aging and infirm Brothers. Your Brothers thank you!

Live Jesus in our hearts, forever!

A Memorable Day AT ST. PATRICK'S CATHEDRAL

It was the first time in the history of the 19th century landmark that a Pope had visited Saint Patrick's Cathedral. On April 19th, in the course of his one week visit to the United States, Pope Benedict XVI celebrated a special Mass at the cathedral for religious men and women, deacons and seminarians. Brother Charles Barbush was one of twelve religious who participated in the offertory procession. When Brother Charles presented the gifts, the Holy Father, recognizing his robe and distinctive collar, said, "The Brothers of the Christian Schools," and grasped his hand. Brother Charles, who is currently on the staff of Manhattan College, recalled the Holy Father's words in his homily, "By your personal fidelity to the ministry entrusted to you, you prepare a path for the Spirit. For the Spirit never ceases to pour out his abundant gifts, to awaken new vocations and missions, and to guide the Church, as our Lord promised, into the fullness of truth."

Br. Charles Barbush of Manhattan College, presented the offertory gifts to Pope Benedict

Bequest of Charles A. Knott, Sr. Will Benefit FSC Missions

On July 22, 2008, Mr. William H. Knott, son of the late Charles A. Knott, Sr. (Calvert Hall '29), accepted, on behalf of his family, the gratitude of the Brothers of the Baltimore District for the gift of $470,000 from his father's estate for the missionary work of the Christian Brothers. At a luncheon meeting hosted at Calvert Hall by Br. Benedict Oliver, Bill remembered his father as a man who loved the Church and the Brothers, who was active in many charitable endeavors, and who lived his life in a spirit of gratitude.

Charles A. Knott's expressed wish was that his gift be used to further the missionary work of the Brothers, especially in Kenya and Nicaragua. By happy coincidence, Br. John McDonnell, the Director of Development for the English speaking Lwanga District of East Africa, headquartered in Nairobi, Kenya, was in the U.S. at the time, and was present for the luncheon. Brother John was able to describe the great need of our schools in Africa and the good work that will be enabled by the generosity of Mr. Knott's gift. In Africa, as in many poor nations, the presence of the Brothers in a town or village makes the difference between having and not having a school.

The Lwanga District, though poor, is blessed with many young Brothers whose religious formation and higher education will now be supported, in part, through the great goodness and foresight of Charles A. Knott, Sr. ~ a gift that will now yield a bountiful return for many years to come!

As an expression of our appreciation, Br. Dennis Malloy, Provincial, presented to Bill Knott and his family a medallion of St. John Baptist de La Salle, along with a citation from the founder's fifteenth meditation, "God is so good that he does not leave unrewarded the good work that is done for Him and the service that is rendered to Him, especially for the salvation of the young."

Summer Retreat Inspires Eastern U.S Brothers

For De La Salle Christian Brothers, the annual retreat remains one of our most important and cherished practices. Since John Baptist de La Salle invited the first Brothers to take time apart for spiritual reinvigoration and reflection on their ministry of Christian education, this custom has been an honored tradition in our community. The annual retreat took on added meaning this year, as over 275 Brothers from the Baltimore, New York, and Long Island-New England (LI-NE) Districts convened for retreat from July 27 through August 1, 2008, at La Salle University in Philadelphia.

Like all retreats, this event provided the Brothers with opportunities for communal and personal prayer and reflection time, an opportunity for sacramental reconciliation, and the chance to renew friendships and to enjoy each other's company for a week. More significantly, however, this year's retreat was a follow up to the Tri-District Holy Week retreat in 2006 when the Brothers of the three Districts agreed to explore a common future together by choosing to unite as the new District of Eastern North America. The 2008 retreat set the goals of continuing the discernment that had begun in 2006, to explore the work done by five restructuring committees since then in light of the Spirit of Faith, to affirm our unity, and to elicit Brothers for future leadership roles in the new District.

Father Robert Joeger, C.P., an affiliated member of our LI-NE District, served as the chaplain for the retreat. The Scriptural theme of the retreat was an extended reflection on John's Gospel (21: 1 - 19). Father's homilies during the Eucharistic liturgies explored various themes of this familiar post-Resurrection passage and always ended with the challenge: "When did you last see the face of your Founder?" Several Brothers addressed the assembly. Brother Michael French of our Midwest District and the current Director of the International Lasallian Studies program (C.I.L.) at our Generalate in Rome examined our Mission in light of the various fractures that exist in the modern world. Brother Leo Smith of the Baltimore District and the Christian Brothers Spiritual Center in Philadelphia reflected on the importance of our community life. tute and a member of our Midwest District, offered some thoughts about the challenge of leadership, while Brother Michael McKenery of the LI-NE District and current President of La Salle Academy in Providence, R.I., considered the leadership theme from the perspective of each Brother. In the course of the week, the Brothers had several opportunities to discuss these topics in smaller groups.

The Brothers who assembled for the retreat were effusive in their appreciation for the marvelous hospitality and welcome extended to them by the many people who served us at La Salle University. We came away from the experience with renewed hope for the future of our vital mission to bring a human and Christian education to the young, especially to the poor, and found encouragement in the new possibilities for service that our uniting into the District of Eastern North America will provide in the near future. Finally, we affirmed the importance of our vocation and voiced our willingness to seek out new Brothers to continue our educational ministry in the Church.

LASALLIANS ALIVE!

Margaret Walsh teaches math at DeLaSalle School in Waterford, Ireland. Brother Robert Peach just completed his first year on the faculty of Central Catholic in Pittsburgh. Patricia May, a nurse, coordinates health services among the Brothers' communities of the San Francisco District. Brother Charles Barbush, a Christian Brother for 43 years, mentors students at Manhattan College. What do all these people have in common?

They joined an international group of colleagues who traveled from Australia, Africa, India, Ireland, the United Kingdom and across the U.S. to participate in the Buttimer Institute of Lasallian Studies. Named for the first American Superior General, Br. Charles Buttimer, this continuing formation and education program, founded in 1987, studies the person and gift of John Baptist de La Salle and the developing story of the Lasallian educational mission.

This year's session, hosted on the beautiful campus of St. Mary's College in Moraga, California from June 22 - July 4, attracted 116 participants who lived, worked, recreated and worshiped together for two weeks. The primary goals of the program included discovering one's vocation as an educator and deepening their association for future service in the mission.

The full program spans three summers. Initially, participants learn about the origins and background of "The Founding Story". Supported by a vibrant community experience, they are also encouraged to be attentive to the inner life. The second session offers a modern analysis of the educational vision of De La Salle. During the final summer, the course focuses on Lasallian spirituality and attempts to enhance each person's spiritual journey and call to educational service.

While the De La Salle Christian Brothers continue to pray for and promote permanent religious consecration, they are also exploring various other forms of association to guarantee the vitality of the Founder's vision. This generative approach creates new life and makes available a talented and diverse community of teachers to meet, welcome and accompany another generation.

Br. Kevin Strong Retires as President of Cardinal Gibbons

“Lord Jesus, as I journey on this earthly pilgrimage to you in heaven, please help me know what vocation I am called to.”
(Prayer to Know My Vocation)

The above prayer is the best possible description of Brother Kevin Strong, President of Cardinal Gibbons School in Baltimore, Maryland.

At the personal request of Cardinal William Keeler, Brother Kevin came to Cardinal Gibbons in 2003 as the school's first President. Prior to that appointment he had been working in the Christian Brothers' Formation Program after ten years as President of Calvert Hall. To the school and community's delight, he brought with him a refreshing energy level, a wonderful Catholic spirituality and a new vision for the school. With Brother Kevin's arrival a resurgence of "Gibbons Spirit" was immediately evident. Alumni, faculty, staff and parents rallied behind his vision and soon after word spread about the good things that were happening.

It was my distinct pleasure to meet Brother Kevin in May of 2007 as I interviewed for the position of Principal at Cardinal Gibbons. I was struck by his genuine Lasallian spirit and the passion he had for the school and everyone associated with it. In the months that followed I took full advantage of Brother Kevin's experience and insight, his knowledge of the Lasallian network of schools and his tremendous love for the school community.

Unfortunately, in late December Brother Kevin was hospitalized with a serious kidney condition that required regular dialysis treatment. After three weeks in the hospital he was able to return home but, in a subsequent checkup it was discovered that he had also developed prostate cancer. As a result of the need to undergo both dialysis and a regimen of radiation treatments, Brother made the decision to relinquish his position as President of Cardinal Gibbons, a decision it was my sad duty to announce to our school community on May 6th. Later in the month, with Brother Kevin in attendance, we gathered to dedicate our school courtyard to him. His office overlooked the peaceful, flower filled courtyard, so its dedication in his name had special meaning for all of us. We can now walk in that space, feel renewed by his spirit and leave energized to continue our educational mission.

In Memory of "A Brother Among Us" JAMES A. McERLEAN, SR., AFSC

James A. McErlean, Sr.
AFSC

James A. McErlean, Sr., AFSC passed away on July 28, 2008 at the age of 80. Jim, along with his dear late wife, Pat, had been closely associated with the Christian Brothers since 1950. We were blessed with Jim's friendship, skills, warmth and gentle presence among us for nearly sixty years.

At thirty-seven years of age, Jim's personal and professional service to the Brothers was recognized by the conferral of the honor of Affiliation to the Institute (AFSC) by our Superior General. Thus, Jim effectively had two families: first and foremost, his biological family of wife, Pat, and children Mary Jane, Peg and Jimmy, who willingly shared their spouse and father with us; secondly, his religious family ~ the Brothers of the Christian Schools.

Jim worked voluntarily and tirelessly to maintain our Elkins Park and Ocean City residences. He kept them in good order by ensuring that their electrical systems were safe, efficient and better than mandated by the applicable utility code. In the days of our Elkins Park Scholasticate a number of young Brothers worked alongside Jim as helpers and "gophers." The fraternal relationships formed during those days would last a lifetime.

As the years passed and time took its toll on his agility, Jim's electrical work was replaced by other worthwhile endeavors of service. He established the Bereavement Committee at St. Hilary's Parish in Rydal, where he also served as an Extraordinary Minister of the Eucharist to the homebound and visited the sick in hospitals. His pliers and side cutters were replaced by other tools: a rosary and a worn, yellowed, crinkling prayer book filled with an ever increasing number of memorial cards to be remembered in his prayers.

Jim's greatest loves were participating in daily Mass and enjoying his beloved wife, children and grandchildren. He also relished the company of his countless friends and colleagues from the Knights of Columbus and their federal credit union and the Sacred Heart Manor Board of Directors. Over the years Jim and Pat were magnificent hosts, sharing their hospitality by welcoming all into their lives and homes in Philadelphia and Sea Isle City.

I was doubly blessed to have Jim as my cousin and as a Brother. His death truly marks the end of an era. May he rest in peace.

MIRACLE AT 790 BERGEN

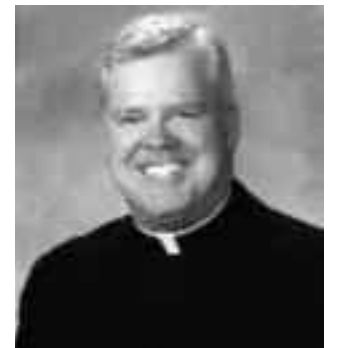

The Archdiocese of Newark announced last April 11th that Hudson Catholic High School would close on June 30, 2008 due to low enrollment and a projected budget deficit for 2008-2009. The alumni, parents, students, faculty and friends of the school responded with a series of protests and demonstrations seeking a reversal of the decision. Students generated hundreds of signatures on an internet petition asking people to pledge their efforts and resources to help save Hudson Catholic. The outpouring of support for the school, which received extensive media coverage, led to a decision by Archdiocesan school officials to hold a general meeting at the school to discuss the issue. While students were conducting a candlelight prayer service in the school courtyard, Father Kevin Hanbury, the Archdiocesan Superintendent of Schools, announced to the standing room only gathering in the gymnasium that it would be necessary for the school to raise $400,000 over the next three weeks for Hudson to remain open.

The Hudson Catholic Alumni Association and parents immediately launched a SAVE OUR SCHOOL campaign, contacting alumni, parents, friends of the school, local merchants and political leaders and soliciting their financial support. The response led by Hawk alumni was immediate and decisive, with donations pouring in from all over the country. "First there was anger, and then came the donations. I've never seen anything like it," said Steve Dnistrian, a member of the Alumni Association. Another alumnus said, "We all agreed that these were a great four years that we enjoyed so much, and we owed it to the school to succeed." The result? The campaign raised over $500,000 in just two weeks!

Father Hanbury returned to Hudson Catholic on May 7th to announce. "I feel very privileged to be with you tonight as you gather to celebrate the results of the extensive efforts of alumni, community leaders, parents, students and faculty. HUDSON CATHOLIC WILL BE OPEN IN SEPTEMBER!" He went on to say, "In the animal kingdom, Hawks are known for their keen vision, speed, strength and determination. Tonight, you have clearly demonstrated all of this to the world." Tom Bender, Class of 1969 and chairman of the Save Our School Committee said, "We are overwhelmed and inspired by the generosity of our supporters, and we are grateful for the commitment of the Archdiocese of Newark and the Christian Brothers to work with us as we begin the process of shaping a new future for Hudson Catholic."

The shaping of the "new future" started with the appointment of Father Warren Hall, a 1981 graduate of the school and a diocesan priest, to the position of chief administrator. In a letter to the school community, Father Hall wrote, "I am grateful to

newly appointed
President/
Principal of Hudson
Catholic HS.

Archbishop John Myers for the opportunity to guide the school into this new phase of outstanding Catholic education for future Hawks and, as of September 2009, Lady Hawks."

Yes, young women will be attending Hudson Catholic, starting in 2009. The Archdiocese, working with members of the Alumni Association, will be forming an advisory board to work with the school's new leadership.

Hudson Catholic Regional High School has educated young men in the Lasallian tradition since 1964. As one of seven regional high schools in the archdiocese, it provides a college preparatory education for students in grades 9-12, and has more than 6000 alumni.

St. John's Student Welcomes Pope Benedict

Kristina Wilson, a junior at St. John's College High School, had the opportunity of a lifetime when Pope Benedict XVI visited Washington. Wilson presented a special gift to the pope in honor of his 81st birthday.

Wilson, two other Catholic school students and Karen Ristau, President of the National Catholic Education Association personally presented gifts to Pope Benedict at a private meeting on April 16th at the Embassy of the Apostolic Nunciature of the Holy See. Wilson represented all of the students from the Archdiocese of Washington.

Wilson was chosen to welcome the pope and present him with his first gift, more than 1.7 million pledged service hours from students in Catholic schools, parish religious education programs, seminaries and colleges. After all the gifts were presented, each student received rosaries that were blessed by the pope. "The pope was so happy to receive the gifts and to see young people," said Wilson. "His face lit up when he saw me and the two other students. He was so excited and had a big smile. I was really touched by his reaction."

According to St. John's Principal Jeffrey Mancabelli, Wilson was selected from a list of students whose experience matched their passion for the Catholic faith. Wilson is in St. John's De La Salle Scholars Program and is a lacrosse student-athlete. She was recently selected as a peer minister, serving as an ambassador of goodwill and assisting in freshmen orientation and retreats. She has also been active in serving others. Last summer, in conjunction with the National Student Leadership Conference, she helped rebuild a plantation in Maryland so that visitors could experience the life of a slave. Wilson also volunteers at the Children's Inn at the National Institutes of Health, making dinner and cards for patients and families.

"This experience gave me a renewal of faith," said Wilson. "Having this small moment gave me a feeling of peace, completeness and hope. It can be hard to be a Catholic today, but I feel hopeful after the week's events. It was just what I needed to continue to follow Christ."

Brothers Celebrate District Day At The Shore

Brothers James Rieck and Timothy Froehlich with Brother Joseph Mahon.

Ever since the Christian Brothers purchased their beach front property in Ocean City from John Wanamaker in 1898 the site has served as a retreat center and summer school as well as a weekend get-a-way for the Brothers. Saturday, July 12th, was a picture perfect day, made to order for the 90 Brothers who gathered there for our annual District Day.

Brother Edward Hofmann, the summer Director of "Ocean Rest," along with the young men and women working there as Lasallian volunteers, were all gracious hosts to the Brothers. After a day on the beach or just enjoying the ocean breezes on the porch, the Brothers gathered for a late afternoon Mass celebrated by Father Tony Janton, AFSC. At the conclusion of the liturgy Brother Dennis Malloy gave special recognition to the Brothers celebrating their jubilees this year, citing their many years of dedicated service to the Christian education of youth in the Baltimore District and beyond. A social hour and delicious catered dinner concluded with the traditional singing of Honneur a Toi, the Brothers' hymn to their founder, Saint John Baptist de La Salle. Taking advantage of a beautiful evening, the singing spirit continued on the spacious porch, ably assisted by Brother Ray Bronowicz's repertoire of sing-a-longs.

A special treat awaited the Brothers on Sunday morning as Brother Joseph Juliano cooked up a brunch that would have been the envy of a five star restaurant. Compliments abounded for Brother Joe and his culinary assistants, Brothers Kevin Finn, Robert Kinzler, Edward Koronkiewicz and Martin Zewe. Once again, we were grateful to be able to celebrate our brotherhood at this very special place by the sea.

CAMDEN'S SAN MIGUEL SCHOOL BEGINS 12th YEAR

The San Miguel School of Camden, NJ is an independent Catholic Middle School for young men of families whose educational needs will be met regardless of their financial status. As a Gospel-centered school, the dignity and giftedness of each student is recognized and nurtured within a supportive community of staff and parents. Its programs provide the necessary academic, spiritual and social skills needed for students to be successful learners and responsible citizens.

The idea of a gratuitous school supported by private donors, companies and foundations is actually over 325 years old. John Baptist de La Salle, a sainted French priest saw the deplorable educational situation of the children of the poor and working class of his day and thus began a transformative educational movement that would eventually spread to every continent.

The hallmark of a Lasallian education is the recognition that each student is unique and has something significant to contribute to society. It is the teacher's mission to help the student discover and cultivate his or her gifts and to make them stewards of these gifts. The educational mission of the Christian Brothers invites us to have our eyes open before the inequalities created by our society and to be creative in our response to new needs. Our mission "must not be reduced to mere assistance, but rather to go to the roots of poverty in order to find structural solutions..." (Br. Alvaro Rodriguez, Superior General of the Christian Brothers)

Fast forward 300 years to the late 1980s. The Brothers, responding to the call of the Institute and the Catholic Church, adapted to the needs of time and place by establishing the Miguel Schools to educate the new immigrant classes and underserved youth in the poorest sections of cities throughout the U.S. The San Miguel School of Camden opened its doors in September, 1997 in the former Mt. Carmel School. There we provide "a human and Christian education" for boys in the 6th-8th grades whose families desire a faith based education but cannot afford the higher tuition parochial schools. Efforts are made to network within the community to identify students who are struggling in their current schools and have economic need. Enrollment is limited to 45 students, which allows for smaller class sizes and individualized assistance. Within the framework of an extended school day, much emphasis is placed on co-curricular activities that foster the development of mind, body and spirit.

The San Miguel School also offers a comprehensive counseling program. The school Counselor, in cooperation with the Social Worker and Child Study Team provide a holistic approach to each boy's academic and behavioral well being. Under the supervision of the Counseling Center a Graduate Support Program assists eighth graders in finding the high school that best meets their needs and provides support and advocacy throughout their high school years.

San Miguel continues to seek new partnerships and strengthen existing ones in order to provide the financial resources for its future growth and success. We are grateful for the contributions of time and resources of many committed people, which has enabled the San Miguel School to grow into the wonderful educational opportunity it is today.

Education Office Sponsors Summer Programs

During this past summer Brother Ernest Miller, Director of Lasallian Mission Formation and Director of Education for the Baltimore District, coordinated several workshops for staff and students of our schools. He was assisted by Mr. Timothy Donovan, Assistant Director of Education. The following is their summary of those activities.

Campus Ministry Symposium St. Mary's Seminary & University, Baltimore

Eighteen participants from our Baltimore, Midwest and New York Districts gathered for this symposium entitled, "Empowered by the Spirit: Bringing the Message of Jesus to the School Community." The sessions from June 11-13 were an opportunity for school ministers to gather seeking wisdom and perspective on the challenges facing campus ministry now and in the future.

The symposium featured topics ranging from retreats to social justice advocacy. The Rev. Edward Branch, D. Min., the Founding Director of Lyke House at The Atlanta University Center, delivered the keynote address. Alexander Pazuchanics, a graduate of Central Catholic H.S., Pittsburgh, shared his research on celebrating liturgy with young people. Br. Dennis Wermert, S.C., a Pastoral Associate from Queens, NY, spoke on designing and sustaining effective high school campus ministry. The session on retreats comprised talks by the Rev. Rich McCouch, S.J., a graduate of La Salle High, and currently of Georgetown Prep, D.C., Mr. Joseph Parisi, a teacher and Kairos Adult Leader at La Salle High, and Mr. Daniel Cavoli, a teacher and retreat minister at St. Edward H.S. in Cleveland. David Chiles, Director of Service at Cabrini College, gave a presentation on connecting Christian service and social justice education and advocacy. Marc Parisi and Meaghan Meehan, ministers at Calvert Hall H.S., and Br. Michael Andrejko, FSC, Director of Campus Ministry at Central Catholic, offered best practices sessions.

Lasallian Student Leadership Workshop La Salle University, Philadelphia

The theme for this annual gathering was "Signum Fidei ~ Sign of Faith: Transformational Student Leadership in the Catholic Lasallian Context." Baltimore District secondary schools were invited to bring student leaders from a variety of co-curricular and extra-curricular student organizations. Twenty-five students participated in the June 16-18 sessions.

The opening presentation was given by Br. Brian Henderson, FSC, Director of St. Gabriel's Hall. Using the image of the woman at the well in John's gospel, he adressed the meaning of Signum Fidei and how it relates to leadership. Professor John DiLulio, of the Fox Leadership Program at the University of Pennsylvania, delivered a presentation examining the theory and practice of leadership. Staff members from the Fox Program then guided workshop participants through an engaging small group exercise. Conor Lamb, a Central Catholic graduate and University of Pennsylvania student, talked about Christian service and social justice based on his experiences. Br. Robert Schaefer, former Assistant Principal for Student Affairs at Central Catholic, led a discussion on leadership that fosters Christian brotherhood and sisterhood. The workshop was capped off with Georgetown University student and Central Catholic grad, James Kelly, giving the participants perspectives on how to use the knowledge and strategies in their school communities.

Lasallian Youth Assembly La Roche College, Pittsburgh

This annual assembly convened in Pittsburgh for the first time from July 20-25. Nearly eighty students participated in the assembly whose theme was, "Witnessing the mind in dialogue, acceptance of the uniqueness and limitations of each, growth in a spirit of service, and the practice of justice and charity." (The Brother of the Christian Schools Today: A Declaration, 1967)

Father Robert George, AFSC, chaplain at Central Catholic H.S., presided at the opening Eucharistic Liturgy. Morning and evening prayer began and ended each day in the college's picturesque chapel, providing appropriate time for reflection.

Br. Michael Andrejko coordinated the planning of daily service opportunities for the students, which included agencies and institutions serving the homeless and hungry, as well as the elderly and immigrants. The evenings were devoted to presentations focusing on the Lasallian themes of faith, service/justice, and community. Judith Coates, Ph.D., a former administrator with the Cristo Rey Network, gave the keynote address using a provocative and informative video presentation called "Shifts Happens" as a point of departure. The following evenings featured a Poverty Stimulation by the Pittsburgh Social Ventures Partners, and a focus on the international scope of the Lasallian community, which included videos of student and faculty immersion ex-

Gospel in Today's World." Giving meaning to the significance of such a forum is the following eloquent statement: "The [Catholic] Lasallian school is to be a living community where young people, coming from different social, ethnic, religious and family backgrounds, educate one another by mutual understanding and respect, openness of periences in Guatemala and Kenya, as well as a video on our work at Bethlehem University. Brother Edward Hofmann, Director of Vocations for the Baltimore District, also spoke to the assembly. The week's activities concluded with exciting excursions around Pittsburgh by day and a closing prayer and sending service on the final evening.

LA SALLE HIGH HONORS CHRISTIAN BROTHERS

On June 7, 2008, two hundred and forty-eight seniors graduated from La Salle College High School in Wyndmoor, PA. Ceremonies included the traditional awarding of the President's Medal, which was presented this year to The Brothers of the Christian Schools for their 150 years of service to La Salle High. Brother Dennis Malloy, Provincial of the Baltimore District, accepted the President's Medal on behalf of the Christian Brothers.

In his remarks Brother Dennis recalled that, in 1858, six Brothers arrived at St. Michael's Parish at Second and Jefferson Streets in Philadelphia to work in the grade school, and how this evolved into what we know as La Salle College High School today. Over the last 150 years, hundreds of Brothers have served at La Salle. Today, 20 of the 170 Brothers of the District are graduates of the school. Br. Richard Kestler, the current President of La Salle is a 1960 graduate, and Br. James Rieck, Director of Admissions, is a member of the Class of '57.

Brother Dennis continued by remembering that for over 300 years the Brothers have dedicated their lives to the call of their founder, St. John Baptist de La Salle, to serve as ambassadors and ministers of Jesus Christ to young people through the ministry of education. "Who we are today must be credited to the accomplishments and sacrifices of many great Brothers who have gone before us. However, our Lasallian mission today is not possible here at La Salle or anywhere without our partners in ministry. Our many talented and dedicated teachers, counselors, administrators and staff share the ministry of teaching minds and touching hearts in the service of the gospel. Our Lasallian mission does not rest on the Brothers alone but is shared with our colleagues. Today we are a worldwide community with some 80,000 lay colleagues and over 5,000 Brothers who animate the Lasallian Mission to a million young people in 81 countries."

Brother Dennis reminded the graduates that education is not just about developing the mind but also the heart and soul. "This will help you to become not only men of achievement and competence but also men of conscience, courage and compassion committed to a life of faith service and justice." He recalled Pope Benedict's recent visit to New York City where he addressed a group of young people and reminded them that Jesus is a constant companion that you can turn to in all moments of life. Brother Dennis encouraged the new "men of LaSalle" to take these words seriously and to heart. He concluded, saying, "We are deeply honored that you have chosen the Brothers of the Baltimore District in this your sesquicentennial year to receive the President's Medal."

(By Br. William DiPasquale, FSC, La Salle College High School)

Br. Dennis Malloy, Provincial, received the President's medal from Br. Richard Kestler, President of La Salle High

LETTER FROM THE DIRECTOR OF DEVELOPMENT

Dear Friends,

It is my pleasure to share with you our 2008 Annual Report of Giving. The accompanying Donor List includes gifts made to the Christian Brothers Development Office and the Saint La Salle Auxiliary between July 1, 2007 and June 30, 2008.

Our recently completed annual audit showed that we had 10,135 donors, with Development and Auxiliary donations totaling over $1,340,000. We regret that space limitations prevent us from listing all of our donors.

The Brothers of the Baltimore District are profoundly grateful to all of our donors for their generosity this past year. Your contributions toward the retirement needs of our elderly and infirm Brothers, the education and formation of our youngest Brothers, and our educational ministries here and abroad are a wonderful expression of your faith-filled support for our service in the Church.

Our benefactors are remembered in the prayers of our retirement communities in Ammendale, Maryland and Lincroft, New Jersey, as well as in our communities throughout the Baltimore District. May the Lord bless you and your loved ones abundantly for your great generosity on our behalf.

Gratefully,

Brother Kevin Stanton, FSC
Director of Development

Christian Brothers' 2008 Service Awards Dinner

The Christian Brothers

of the Baltimore District invite your support for their third annual Service Awards Dinner, which will be held on Saturday, October 25, 2008 at The Crystal Tea Room in Philadelphia's Wanamaker Building.

■ The dinner honors Brother Robert Schieler, FSC and ten other Brother Jubilarians celebrating more than 500 years of dedicated service to Catholic education. Brother Robert, a 1968 graduate of West Catholic Boys High School and former Provincial Visitor of the Baltimore District, currently serves as a member of the Christian Brothers General Council in Rome. The event benefits West Catholic High School, now in its 92nd year of providing Catholic education for young men and women in the Philadelphia area.

■ For sponsoring opportunities please contact the Development Office.
