

LA SALLE COLLEGE HIGH SCHOOL

POSITION: TEACHER OF RELIGION

STATUS: Full-time position for the 2024-25 academic year

REPORTS TO: Dean of Academics

MISSION STATEMENT:

La Salle College High School, a Catholic, independent, college preparatory school for young men of varied backgrounds, is conducted in the tradition of St. John Baptist de La Salle. Through a broad and balanced, human and Christian education, La Salle College High School guides each student in the development of his unique God-given talents and fosters a commitment to academic excellence, service, and leadership.

PRIMARY ROLES:

La Salle College High School is seeking an enthusiastic and dedicated teacher of Religion who is passionate about student engagement, active learning, the application of the study of religion to the lives of adolescent young men, and the promotion of critical thinking and open dialog. The ideal candidate will have a strong foundation in the Catholic Faith and teaching Religion, excellent communication and organizational skills, and a creative approach to teaching. The successful candidate will be able to teach the content effectively and, in the spirit of our Lasallian Catholic context, connect with adolescent young men in positive and meaningful ways. Lasallian education is about “teaching minds and touching hearts”. Our teachers inspire and shape the lives of our students through their interactions both in and outside of the classroom.

RESPONSIBILITIES:

- Teach six sections of Religion - three one-hour classes a day.
- Play a vital role in shaping the faith development of all students.
- Assess student progress through various assessment methods and provide timely, meaningful, actionable, and individualized student feedback.
- Create a positive and inclusive classroom environment for all students.
- Fulfill additional roles of full-time faculty members, e.g., managing a proctor assignment and being a homeroom moderator. Option to get involved moderating an extracurricular activity, and/or contributing to a campus ministry activity.
- Productively collaborate with colleagues in departmental and school-wide initiatives.
- Willingly collaborate with departmental colleagues to follow the existing curriculum and when possible, contribute ideas to enhance it.

QUALIFICATIONS:

- Clear commitment to the mission of the school which emphasizes teaching the whole student and meeting the diverse needs of students.
- Experience with teaching techniques that produce active student engagement, include real-world applications of content and skills covered and provide meaningful student feedback.
- Passion for the academic subject matter being taught and working with adolescent young men to develop to their fullest potential.
- Excellent oral, written, interpersonal, and organizational skills.
- Working knowledge of current technology with a proclivity to try new technologies.
- Commitment to the professionalism of a teacher, e.g., attendance, punctuality, respectful interactions with all community members, timely responses to all requests for communication, and ongoing professional development.
- Practicing Catholic with a firm understanding of the teachings of the Church.

EDUCATION AND EXPERIENCE:

- Bachelor's degree required. Master's degree in Theology or its equivalent preferred.
- Teaching experience in secondary education highly preferred.
